

Audible cell phone use will become intolerable for nonusing passengers in the confines of an aircraft cabin. There will be confrontations because cell phone boors will not respect their fellow travelers. Please restrict cell phone use in flight to data transfer or any mode other than audible voice shared with the unwilling.